AUTOMOBILE RECEIPTS SHOW LARGE INCREASE

Connecticut automobile receipts for the fiscal year, to the close of business on Thursday, had amounted to $757,325.15, as against $536,970 for the entire twelve months of 1915. This shows an increase of $220,355.05 with more than three weeks of the present business year yet to run, the fiscal year ending at the close of the month. Chief Clerk Frederick J. Weinstein of the automobile department said that about $20,000 would be received before the end of the fiscal year. These figures indicate an income of $780,000 for the year. All the money is turned over to the automobile department for the repair of state highways.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

HARRINGTON-BISHOP

Miss Agnes Stevenson, Bishop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartlett Bishop of 325 Norman street, and Mr. Walter Burling Harrington, son of Rev. and Mrs. Henry L. Harrington of Westerly, R. I., were married at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the People's Presbyterian church. Rev. Henry A. Davenport, pastor, performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 friends of the young couple. The decorations for the wedding and reception which followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, were in pink.

Miss Bishop was attended by Miss Mildred MacLeod as maid of honor, and the Misses Rachel Pickett, of Fairfield, and Edna Wright, of this city, as bridesmaids. Henry Harrington was his brother's best man, and William Robert Bishop, brother of the bride, Augustus B. Harrington, of Westerly, S. Mulford, Keough, and Charles Bitzer were ushers. Mr. and Mrs. Harrington will reside at 82 Merchant street when they return from the honeymoon. Mr. Harrington is with the local factory of the International Silver Co. His bride was formerly a member of the kindergarten department of the Bridgeport Orphan Asylum.

At the bridal dinner given last evening at the Seaside club to the members of the wedding party, Mr. Harrington presented Miss Bishop with a diamond and pearl locket. The bride's gift to her prospective husband was a signet ring, to her maid of honor, a bracelet and to her two bridesmaids, bar pins. Mr. Harrington gave his best man a diamond and gold stick pin and his ushers, pearl and gold pins.

DEMOCRATS OF NEWTOWN, RENAME OFFICE HOLDERS.

Faithful Public Servants Receive Recognition of Their Service.

(Special to The Farmer.) Newtown, Sept. 8.—Thursday night a large assemblage of Democrats met in town hall, and by acclamation unanimously put in nomination a ticket for the town election in October as follows: Selectmen Ephraim D. Briscoe, Thomas F. Brew, assessor, John J. Northrop; board of relief, Henry Ruff, Simon Corey; grand jurors, Harry Madigan, P. H. Gannon; constables, Thomas Carlson, James Hughes, Patrick Roche, Austin E. Hurd; registrars of voters, First district, Thomas F. Bradley; Second district, Frank Kirby; tax collector, John F. Houlihan; school visitors and town high school committee, Rev. George T. Sinnott, M. A. Corbett; auditor, Frank H. Ives. A. J. Gallagher was chairman, and Town Clerk Oscar Pitzschler was clerk of the caucus. The entire ticket is practically a re-nomination of last year's choice of officeholders.

During the proceeding a score or more of Republican politicians were spectators in the gallery and the celerity and smoothness of the scene below filled them with amazement at the harmony prevailing in the ranks of the Democracy. As one Republican present said, "The Republicans will have to do more this fall than fight for the offices; they will have first to fight for good men to lead them—and then some more."
